

a-b: original log-normalised expression, never modified by any representation correction. c-d: representation spaces; higher mixing is not proof of correctness.